We're in the News again!

Joined the club

WE read your article about the Steel Horses Cruising Motorcycle Club (Carsguide, December 12).

After recently purchasing a Honda Shadow Cruiser I was looking for a club to join and after reading your article I got in contact with them.

I would like to thank you for your article which led to me joining a great club that has assisted me in being a better rider. The club members have been very welcoming to me and my partner.

Sarge's Speil—February 2010

Taking extended holidays is not all its cracked up to be because from the day I got back to work I've been travelling interstate and it's not going to ease up in the foreseeable future.

This has resulted in me missing the last meeting and probably missing the next 2 as well, but I guess we all have to eat!

The rides are going smoothly except for a small event near Nimbin that is fast fading from my memory and everyone seems to be enjoying themselves. It is really important that everyone continues to get enjoyment from our Club and I encourage anyone with suggestions for rides or events and so forth to 'bring it on' and raise the idea.

I am very pleased that we now have enough Riders to justify a Riders' Delegate [Rule 19(7)(b) - Editor] and one of my favourite Pommies (Aussie for 'English Gentleman') has accepted the role. Good on ya Rowdy, I look forward to your ideas at the committee meetings and elsewhere. If you're wondering what the Riders' Delegate does, then have a look at the job description on the web on page 21 of the January Newsletter. Basically, if you're like me and a bit shy, you can make suggestions and raise ideas or issues about the Club by talking to the Riders' Delegate.

I hear a whisper that the amount of Rules and By-Laws is a slight concern to some and to all I offer this advice. Don't be concerned as our Club is set up to ensure that the rules and stuff are there to guide us and if the majority of members believe that any Rule or By-Law needs to be changed or thrown out, then they can be by a democratic vote and more than 50% of members agreeing at ANY monthly meeting. This was set-up to ensure that bad rules are changed and good rules are strong—not to provide a power base for any individual or committee.

Despite my travel schedule I will be actively joining the Club rides now the "Beast" is back on the road.

I would like to thanks Sparra for the very generous loan of his Bike for a couple of weeks and Sugar is also very grateful because she knows that I can get a little testy if I don't ride regularly, so thanks heaps mate!

See Ya on the next one

Ynot's Blurb—February 2010

Hi all,

We are well into the New Year, and the club is going from strength to strength. There have been a wide variety of rides, which have been very well attended, and we are still attracting new members and visitors to our events.

With the imminent release of our By-Laws, several members have approached me informally with some concerns, so I would like to address those concerns and clarify some of the misunderstandings that may be occurring.

First of all, to become incorporated, Office of Fair Trading requires that we have a set of Rules for the club. These Rules must comply with the relevant act and be approved by Office of Fair Trading before we could gain incorporation. Once accepted by the Office of Fair Trading these Rules can only be changed by way of a special resolution carried at a monthly meeting. Any change must then be validated by registering it with the Chief Executive of the Office of Fair Trading. As we are now incorporated we have a set of Rules in place.

When we were writing the Rules, in addition to complying with the relevant act, we had make sure that the desired culture of the club could be fostered whilst simultaneously sticking to the Rules. The culture that we wanted to foster was one that encouraged at least the following;

- Participation by all members,
- Democratic decision making,
- Equality for all members,
- Freedom to express an opinion without fear of retribution or criticism,
- Transparency of processes,
- Fun and enjoyment for all,
- Election of office bearers,
- The ability to change as required by the membership.

The Rules, which must not be broken during the club's daily operations, provide general guidance for the club, and in many cases require much more detailed explanation so that they can be adhered to without ambiguity and misinterpretation.

Therefore, to ensure the desired club culture is maintained within the parameters of the Rules, it is necessary to add procedures, methods, guidelines, instructions, protocols and By-Laws to the Rules to assist in the daily operations. The use of these different titles for similar things often makes the resulting document very difficult to follow and leads to the problems of conflict, misunderstanding, ambiguity and confusion that we are trying to avoid. Therefore we have referred to them simply as By-Laws.

Rule number 42(1) states that, "the management committee may make, amend or repeal By-Laws not inconsistent with these rules for the internal management of the association". So long as any By-Law is not inconsistent with the Rules, the Management Committee can further refine the Rules to enhance the association's operations. So we have produced the By-Laws, and hopefully increased clarity, and eliminated any ambiguity.

The intention of the By-Laws is not to control and restrict members, but to provide guidance to all members so that we all achieve as much enjoyment from the club as we desire. If there is a fear that we are recreating the dictatorial, restrictive, controlling and confusing environment some of us have witnessed elsewhere, then you only have to refer to the desired culture identified above to see that this is not our intention.

If there is a By-Law that you want to change or remove, you can do this quite simply. Rule number 42(2) states, "A By-Law may be set aside by a majority vote of members at a monthly meeting of the association". The democratic, participative, transparent nature of our processes is protected by the Rules and this in turn is reflected in the By-Laws.

Here are a couple of examples to illustrate the user-friendly nature of the By-Laws.

- If you wanted to know what was involved in the role of Tail End Charlie, by searching the Index (or Directory) for Tail End Charlie you get referred to Roles, and Roles – Tail-end-Charlie currently refers you to By-Law 19(j) on page 19. This explains exactly what Tail End Charlie is expected to do.
- If you wanted to know what the ride rules are, you would look in the Index (or Directory) for Ride – Rules and currently this refers you to By-Law 17(b) on page 13, where the ride rules are detailed.

The By-Laws are intended to be a constant work in progress that can easily be changed during the process of continuous improvement. As previously stated they are intended to help, not restrict or impede your enjoyment of the club. We must never forget the purpose of our club as identified in Rule number 3. Objects. "The objects of the association are to encourage members to regularly meet, ride and join together for social enjoyment."

I request that you reserve judgement of the By-Laws until you have read them, then you are encouraged to discuss them and debate them as much as you want. Discussion and debate will be encouraged at all times.

On a different note, there was only one nomination for Riders' Delegate and that was Rowdy. Congratulations Rowdy, you officially take up the role at the commencement of the February meeting. As By-Law 19(g) states, "the purpose of the Riders' Delegate is to be the representative for all rider members on the Management Committee, and be the first point of communication for any issues of concern or clarification." Until we have Delegates for Pillions and Social members, the Riders' Delegate will represent them also.

On a lighter note, a special welcome to our latest member Baz, the man of great literary prowess.

I need a ride after all this heavy stuff, see you on the next one.

Ride— West—Sunday, 10 January 2010

The editor did not receive a ride report for this WEST ride which, according to the event calendar was scheduled for Rosewood, Gatton, Murphys Creek, Hampton, Esk, and Fernvale.

Ride— South—Saturday, 17 January 2010

We all met at Yatala in hot weather ready for a pleasant outing. This was my first time as RIDE CAPTAIN and as I arrived early I was off to a good start. We left at 9ish, 12 bikes in all, being led by the Triumph.

We went out through the back of Beenleigh to Beaudesert where Sarge led us to the start of the Lyons Road, as I was worried I would miss the 10 ft sign.

We had a nice ride along the Lyons Road, which I had not travelled for 30 years. (Bitumen is a good thing.) We soon came to Kyogle where we stopped for refreshments.

After Kyogle we headed for Nimbin for lunch. As we proceeded leisurely along the road I was startled as I was overtaken by Boots and nearly overtaken by Sarge. It was here I noticed that Sarge, on this particular overtaking manoeuvre was (I would say at a guess) awestruck at the sight of my beautiful Triumph Rocket 3 Classic, and momentarily had a lapse in concentration and ran off the road. (I would like to take this opportunity to remind all fellow members that the Club does not have Public Liability insurance and everyone is responsible for their own actions.)

We all stopped to render assistance and were pleased to see that Sarge had received only dents (to his pride) while his Suzuki had minor cuts and abrasions.

We then arrived in Nimbin where we had lunch. It was here to my surprise, that the local feral wildlife have progressed to walking upright and some were attempting to use eating utensils. (I digress)

After lunch we proceeded to Murwillumbah for fuel and it was here we said our goodbyes, as some went up the highway and four of us went over the mountains. Well done to Gers, and Bruce on the little Honda [Little! It's a Honda Blackbird! – Editor], for keeping up on the mountain stretch.

A special well done to Shadow, who improves his skill level on every ride.

Till next time,

YOGI. (Ride Captain)

Ride— South—Sunday, 24 January 2010

Once again we met at Yatala to enjoy another ride to the south in perfect but very hot weather.

Princess, who originally rode down to say “hi” and have breakfast with us, decided to do the trip making her the club's first Lady Rider.

Sarge also turned up, but this time on a borrowed steed, compliments of Sparra. It was also good to see everyone else. I think there were five of us.

We rode south down the highway to Chinderah where we said goodbye to Sarge who was suffering from an alleged sore arm. (read previous report. Nimbin Indiscretion) But really missing Sugar, he tearfully left.

Princess, Shadow, Drastic and I continued along the coast road enjoying the ride. We rode to Byron Bay but due to the traffic and crowds we decided to continue on to Ballina where we had lunch, at the pub overlooking the water.

After Ballina we decided to head for home. A slight detour was made to obtain fuel. As I didn't have a clue where the servo was we found some interesting places before stumbling into Kingscliffe.

After fuel and a chat we headed for home, Drastic peeled off around Loganholm and Princess led Shadow and I the rest of the way.

Till next time

YOGI. (Ride Captain)

Ride— West—Saturday, 30 January 2010

The editor did not receive a ride report for this WEST ride which, according to the event calendar was scheduled as a Pillion's Choice.

Ride— Central—Sunday, 7 February 2010

I woke up and the heavy rain during the night had turned to a light drizzle. "Hmmm", I thought "maybe I can do a ride today". This idea changed very quickly after I looked at the weather link on our web page and saw the amount of rain developing over Moreton Bay and heading directly across SE Qld.

At about 7.30 am it started to rain again and didn't stop. I called Sparra and Ynot and told them that the ride was not going to happen and they told me that they were also getting a downpour in their respective locations.

I kicked the missus out of bed and started the Car and headed off to Maccas just in case someone showed for the ride. As I turned into the Maccas Car park I spied the "Plastic Pony" parked and dripping water. I dropped the missus at the door so her Hair did not get wet and parked the Car. As I entered the restaurant I was greeted by Shadow who told me he had just called TT to bring the WET GEAR. To say I was impressed by Shadow's commitment would be an understatement.

After a chat and a Bacon muffin I told Shadow that the weather wasn't going to let up so the ride was not going to happen. I must admit he didn't look very surprised!

Just then TT turned up with his wet gear so we said 'so long' and headed home.

It was a shame we could not make it to Mt Glorious for the Shannons presentation but these things happen
SEE YA on the next one.

Sarge

[Shannons cancelled the event due to heavy rain anyway - Editor]

Some days it just doesn't pay to get out of bed!

Event Calendar

Where it says "Rider's Choice" or "Pillion's Choice" or "Member's Choice"

We would like you to volunteer to lead a ride along your favourite roads.

If you want to take a Riders Choice, email the relevant Ride Captain at least two weeks before to let him/her know the meeting point (you decide), the route, the distance, and approximate ride duration.

If everything is OK, the Ride Captain will approve it and let you know ASAP.

When the Ride Captain lets you know, you MUST then email all members to give them advanced notice of the ride details.

(if you can't do that, ask the Secretary to do it ASAP).

YOU must then lead the ride.

If nobody volunteers, the relevant Ride Captain will take the ride as usual.

You must phone the relevant Ride Captain by 7.30 pm the night before a ride to confirm you wish to do that ride.

Why do you Ride?

Whether you ride once a month, once a week, or once a day; whether you ride 10 km or 10,000 km; whether you ride a cruiser, a tourer, a sports bike, a classic, a naked, a motard, or a dirt bike; whatever the size motorcycle or engine capacity; whether you're young, old, or somewhere in between; whether you're male or female, be it as a rider or pillion; once you start riding, once you cross that line, there is just about nothing that will ever make you stop.

Every time you ride you'll be the better for it, the thrill will never diminish, each and every ride will once more set you apart from the whole, yet bring you closer in and bind you once more with all of us who do ride.

And even when or if you become physically unable to participate in the adventure, you'll always feel it in your blood; when you hear that distinctive sound of a steel horse passing you'll strain your neck to catch a look, and from somewhere deep inside once more you'll smell the smells, feel the wind on your face, feel the throb, the heartbeat, of that machine down to your very core. And you'll smile that secret smile that sets you apart from the crowd, that only another biker would recognize; and your soul will rush out and ride the road right along with that passing machine until its sound fades in the distance, and once more you'll think to yourself, "damn, that was a good ride!".

History of Motorcycles—part 1

Adapted from Jeffry L'H. Tank

Throughout the centuries man has striven to expand his capabilities through the use of machines. His ever inventive mind has constantly devised ways to use tools to increase his abilities to explore the world around him, to go faster, deeper, higher and further than before. Coupled with his need to find new thrills, new adventures and new modes of transportation, the invention and refinement of the motorcycle seems an inevitable outcome.

The early years of the development of the motorcycle are especially fascinating as they hold of some of mans most bizarre experimental machinery. Before we get started on the history of the motorcycle itself, a short review of it's predecessor, namely the bicycle, is in order, an invention without which the motor bicycle, as they were first called, may well have never come about.

It's claimed that Michelangelo conceived of the bicycle as early as the 14th century and this drawing supposedly by him, has a remarkable resemblance to the modern day bicycle. It had wheels of similar size and pedals and a leather "chain", but no apparent means of steering. Others however, claim this drawing was added later and is a hoax.

Though never built, it was a remarkably clever design, and early bicycle makers would have done well to study this concept. There have, in fact, been 4 machines built based on this drawing, attesting to the viability of his design.

The first attempt at actually producing any sort of 2 wheeled conveyance fell on the shoulders of one Comte de Sivrac in the late 1791, though hardly a bicycle as we understand the meaning today. It was crude affair made entirely of wood with no pedals, brakes or even steering. This early machine was referred to as a hobbyhorse and was considered nothing more than a curiosity, or rich mans folly, an attitude that remained for a number of years, until the late 1800's. A person simply sat upon it and pushed it along with their feet in a sort of gliding walk.

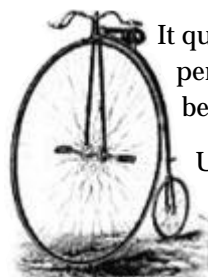

Then in 1816-17 (depending on the source) Baron van Draais revised the concept to include a steerable front wheel, but his machine still lacked pedals or brakes, so wasn't much of an improvement.

Weighing 23 kg it was not much better than walking and could not have been fun on any sort of hill, either going up or down! The lack of comfort and condition of roads at the time gave rise to the term "boneshaker" which stuck with two wheeled vehicles for some time.

Then in 1869 a William van Anden in New York added pedals directly to the front wheel. Now at last we approach what can be called by modern terms, a bicycle. It also had free-wheeling pedals that allowed the wheel to turn while the pedals remained stationary and had a friction brake on the rear wheel operated by twisting one of the hand grips. Oddly enough these innovations did not appear on many other machines for quite some time.

It quickly became apparent however that the only way to increase speed or distance travelled, per rotation of the pedals, was to increase the size of the front wheel, leading to what became known as the High Wheeler.

Unfortunately because of the high centre of gravity and forward position of the rider, not only was some skill required to mount and dismount this contraption, but should the front wheel suddenly stop, the rider was thrown forward on his head, thus giving rise to the term "Taking a Header".
